The conference

The 11th International Conference on Reliable Software Technologies (Ada-Europe 2006) will take place in Porto, Portugal, 5-9 of June, 2006. Following the usual style, the conference will span a full week, including a three-day technical program and vendor exhibitions from Tuesday to Thursday, along with parallel workshops and tutorials on Monday and Friday. This is the 11th event in the Ada-Europe's Reliable Software Technologies series, previous ones being held at Montreux, Switzerland ('96), London, UK ('97), Uppsala, Sweden ('98), Santander, Spain ('99), Potsdam, Germany ('00), Leuven, Belgium ('01), Vienna, Austria ('02), Toulouse, France ('03), Palma de Mallorca, Spain ('04) and York, UK ('05).

The conference has established itself as an international forum for providers and practitioners of, and researchers into, reliable software technologies. The conference presentations will illustrate current work in the theory and practice of the design, development and maintenance of long-lived, high-quality software systems for a variety of application domains. The program will allow ample time for keynotes, Q&A sessions, panel discussions and social events. Participants will include practitioners and researchers from industry, academia and government organizations interested in furthering the development of reliable software technologies.

The location

Porto (a.k.a. Oporto) is Portugal's second-largest city, in the heart of an area of great vitality, ideal gateway to the undiscovered North of Portugal.

The city presents a rich Cultural Heritage. From the remains of Visigotic and Celtic villages, Roman roads, bridges and Castros to Romanesque and Gothic churches and Cathedrals built during the Medieval Age, centuries of mankind-built heritage are to be discovered in and around Porto.

The recognition of Porto by UNESCO (in 1996) as a World Heritage City, is undoubtedly a tribute to its wealth of over two thousand years of history.

The city of Porto and its river, Douro, cannot be dissociated. The Douro valley, with its lovely terraces of vineyards clinging to the hillsides, is the kingdom of the famous Port Wine and offers visitors spectacular views.

The friendly welcoming nature of the Portuguese people, highly professional and cost-effective services are a guarantee of a successful event and will give you something to remember in the future.
